

RAW APPEAL

From Kerusi by Karen Mok, the Basic collection (side table) is made from recycled logs while the Nude collection (lounge chair) is reminiscent of the 50s Danish modernist style. The harvest of raw wooden material for the selections at Kerusi is practiced with a sustainable development in mind, underlining the company's respect for the natural environment.

UNIQUE BY NATURE

Situated along Jalan Maarof, What Living boasts of a diverse and unique collection of home furniture. One of their outstanding pieces is the banyan tree root coffee table (pictured above), a statement piece that is complemented by the Marlboro chair made with Sonokeling wood with dark brown leather, the Opera square silver mirror and Krawang bronze horse sculptures. www.what-living.com

VINTAGE LOVE

If you adore the rustic charm of vintage furniture, be sure to visit the Curiosity Shop's pop-up store at Publika. Aside from offering a treasure trove of unique, custom-made designs, they also offer services in refurbishing old furniture. The pop-up store will be available until early May, after which the Curiosity Shop can be found at their outlet at 11 Jalan Berangan, Kuala Lumpur. thecuriositygallery.blogspot.com
